

Support and Repair

Last Updated Saturday, 05 April 2008

Techbridge offers an end-to-end installation and support services that provide our customers with reliable and timely delivery of their technical projects. No matter how big or small - we closely monitor all aspects of our projects and provide our customers with regular project status updates all along the way.

We provide highly skilled technology professionals, who are thoroughly trained and committed to meet and/or exceed expectations. We'll work hard to understand your business requirements, develop a comprehensive strategy for deployment, plan the project tasking and then effectively control and execute the the solution deployment.

Techbridge Installation and Deployment Services include:

- Desktops
- Printers
- Servers
- Enterprise and Small Business Networks
- Wired and Wireless Network Devices
- Relocation Services
- De-Installation Services

Techbridge delivers comprehensive support to all types of equipment including desktops, laptops, servers, printers and peripherals. We provide warranty support programs and customized service and maintenance agreements to support virtually all platforms and peripherals.

Techbridge Support Services include:

- Depot and On-site preventative maintenance, diagnostics and repair services
- Break-fix technical support and repair capabilities

- PCs
- Laptops
- Printers
- Hard Drives
- Consumer Electronics
- Networking
- Software

- Multi-vendor support and service capabilities

- Custom maintenance and service level agreements

Techbridge can provide the technical and project management skills that will guarantee a successful project each and every time. If asset recovery, redeployment or recycling is part of the scope of the project, we can offer the most cost-effective recovery and disposal programs that meet those needs allowing you to focus on what you do best.

Techbridge also delivers comprehensive solutions and services in the following business technology domains:

- Support and Repair Services
- Web Related Products and Services
- IT Sales, Rentals, Leases
- IT Asset Management
- IT Program Support
- Information Security & Continuity of Operations
- Data Recovery and Data Destruction
- Business Process Engineering
- Business Process Automation
- Network Engineering and Administration
- Web and Application Design/Development