

Techbridge Home Consumer Services

Last Updated Saturday, 05 April 2008

Techbridge Inc helps home technology users to plan, build and maintain technology used in their daily lives by closely managing the installation and maintenance of today's technology. Our solutions are designed to minimize the headaches and challenges sometimes associated with new technology, and maximize your enjoyment and the usefulness of your investment.

"Techbridge - Bridging the Gap between Life and Technology"™

Our certified and highly experienced consultants offer you their knowledge in emerging technologies and proven tools to help your technology investment function better than you thought possible. We will listen to your needs and help you address your everyday challenges by providing functional solutions that improve efficiency, reduce frustration and maximize your satisfaction with your purchase. more..